With the financial crunch impacting the concert industry, festival Country Thunder USA has established a ticket layaway program. To encourage fans to purchase tickets early and save money with early bird pricing, the promoter is offering $99 tickets on www.countrythunder.com with an option to pay the total at once or in three payments. Tim McGraw, Alan Jackson, Montgomery Gentry, Little Big Town, Neal McCoy, Blake Shelton, Rodney Atkins, Keith Anderson, and Zac Brown Band are among the artists already announced for Country Thunder's Florence, AZ festival to held April 1-4.

Rock festivals Bonnaroo (Manchester, TN, June 11-14) and Langerado (Miami, March 6-8) recently announced similar payment plans
