Multiple CMA Award Winners Set to Perform at 2011 Country Stampede

(Manhattan, KS) – November 15, 2010 – For the first time in the sixteen year history of Country Stampede, the event will feature the CMA Entertainer of the Year, the CMA Vocal Group of the Year, the CMA Male Vocalist of the Year and they still have more artists to announce at a later date.

Country Stampede President and General Manager Wayne Rouse said it is very rare that a festival lineup has such depth. “We always work hard to bring our fans a first class lineup however this year it will be exceptional” Rouse said.

In keeping with its reputation of presenting to fans the biggest and best that country music has to offer, Country Stampede has announced that in addition to the CMA Entertainer of the Year Brad Paisley, and the CMA Vocal Group of the Year Lady Antebellum, CMA Male Vocalist of the Year winner Blake Shelton, Grammy nominated platinum recording artist Joe Nichols, and CMA New Artist of the Year nominee Jerrod Niemann will be bringing their spectacular performances to the Country Stampede main stage this coming June.

Also performing on the 2011 lineup is singer-songwriter and hot new artist Eric Church, country music superstars and crowd favorites Sawyer Brown, multi-platinum recording artist and chart topper Collin Raye, country music legends Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and traditionalist new comer Troy Olsen. More artist announcements will be made as acts are confirmed.

Of course there’s more to Country Stampede than first class country music entertainment. Country Stampede is the biggest party in the Mid-west featuring hundreds of vendors, interactive exhibitors, and exciting activities. One of the most popular aspects of the event is the campground, which with its thousands of campsites, scenic beauty, and modern amenities makes a great home for the duration of the four day event.
